Chapter 49: The Ascension to the Absolute Realm

The Divine Triad, in their boundless wisdom and infinite power, decided that the time had come for the Sung Clan—the family of Sung Jin-Woo and Sung Su-Ho—to ascend to a higher plane of existence. With their influence extending across galaxies and dimensions, the Triad's actions were deliberate and calculated, ensuring the safety and continued evolution of their family.

Thus, the Pavilion of the Divine Legacy—the sacred and legendary home of the Sung Clan—was relocated from Earth to the Absolute Realm Universe, a place far beyond the reach of ordinary beings. This was no mere act of relocation; it was a monumental shift, elevating the family to a realm of divinity and higher consciousness.

The Absolute Realm Universe was a domain unlike any other, a place where the boundaries between the material and the ethereal were blurred, where time and space were malleable, and where only beings of supreme power could reside. The Pavilion of the Divine Legacy, now situated at the heart of this realm, stood as a symbol of the Sung Clan's heritage and their connection to the Divine Triad.

As the Sung Clan settled into their new home, the Triad took it upon themselves to guide the clan members through their ascension into something greater. The Divine Triad had already ascended to their ultimate forms—Sung Jin-Woo as the Shadow Monarch and Absolute Humanoid Being, Sung Su-Ho as the Dragon Monarch and Absolute Dragonic Being, and Ashborn as the Absolute Celestial Being. Now, the clan would follow in their footsteps, transcending their mortal limitations and becoming something far more powerful—beings of celestial origin, forged from a blend of both divine and humanoid essence.

The process of ascension was not instantaneous, for it required the harmonizing of the Sung Clan’s vast powers, energies, and souls. But under the watchful eyes of the Divine Triad, the family began their transformation into a humanoid celestial race, beings whose very presence radiated light, power, and an aura of divine authority.

The first to undergo this transformation was Sung Jin-Woo himself, whose power surged to unimaginable heights as the Shadow Monarch and Absolute Humanoid Being. His family—Sung Su-Ho, Sung Ye-Jun, Sung Ye-Rin, and the entire Sung Clan—followed, each stepping into their new forms with the guidance of the Triad. No longer bound by the limitations of their previous existence, they were elevated into a realm where the laws of the universe itself bent to their will.

Sung Ye-Jun and Sung Ye-Rin, with their dragon hearts, now stood as the vanguard of the Dragon Monarch’s lineage, ready to lead their people into an era of unimaginable prosperity. The entire Sung Clan now exuded the essence of their ancestors, the Shadow Monarch and the Dragon Monarch, becoming entities that blended the celestial, the draconic, and the humanoid into something entirely unique.

In the Absolute Realm Universe, their new home stood in perfect harmony with the Pavilion of the Divine Legacy, a testament to the bond between the Sung Clan and the Divine Triad. They were no longer just a family; they were the new foundation of a celestial dynasty that would guide the multiverse into a new era, where their power and wisdom would reign supreme.

The Sung Clan’s ascension to this higher plane was not merely a symbolic act, but a shift that would affect the entire multiverse. Their connection to the Divine Triad ensured that they were not only the guardians of their own realm, but also the custodians of order and balance across all dimensions.

As the Sung Clan stood together in their new forms, they gazed upon their surroundings—the Absolute Realm Universe, their new home. They understood that this was not the end, but the beginning of a new chapter in their existence. They were now beings of boundless potential, destined to protect and guide the multiverse under the watchful eyes of the Divine Triad, and they were ready to face whatever challenges awaited them in their new, higher state of being.

With their ascension complete, the Sung Clan stood at the threshold of divinity, their future intertwined with the Divine Triad, as they prepared to carve their place among the most powerful beings in existence.
